PASTOR'S WORDS

I am excited to announce that all the equipment for our hearing loop system has been received at the church and we have started the process of installing it! We hope to have the new system up and running soon in the next few weeks.

Our yearly church conference is Sunday, November 3rd at 1:30 PM at Gladstone Memorial UMC. Several of us will be car-pooling, so if you would like to attend and need a ride, please let us know.

At our church conference each year, we ratify our list of leaders within our local church and the committee areas that they serve. It is vital that the leaders of our church receive good communication from everyone within our church body. If you are not currently serving on a committee, then please communicate with any of our church leaders about your thoughts of our local church so they know your thoughts.

We are better together and much like the quilts that adorn our church walls, a square that is missing is very much noticed!

PASTOR'S WORDS

Even if your square of our quilt is a different shape or color than the neighboring pieces—it is still a part of the same quilt that makes us the one body in Christ.

I will be out of the office from November 13-22 during my annual vacation time of rest and renewal. If an urgent need arises and I can't be reached, please let Connie or Janet know and they can assist.

Pastor B.J.

VOLUNTEERS are needed for USHER/GREETER, ALTAR FLOWERS, FELLOWSHIP, and an adult's caring eye during CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

ADVENT READERS are still needed for December 15, December 22, and Christmas Eve December 24. If you are interested, please sign up soon!

Notes from your Worship Committee,

First, a list of areas covered by the worship committee. Basically, all things dealing with our worship experience. Music, ushers and greeters, acolytes, paraments and banners, communion, liturgists, altar flowers, technology support, lift assistance, and fellowship. The committee is in charge of the sacraments such as the palm on Palm Sunday, carnations on Mother's and Father's Days, Bibles at graduation services. We make sure the banners are changed, the communion table is prepared, the advent wreath with candles, and the cross with the crown of thorns are properly displayed. We supply the devotional booklets, make preparations for meaningful baptism renewal services. We work to make our worship area safe and functional.

Lastly, we listen to the congregation, for insights, feedback, and inspiration. So please continue to share we want to hear from you so we can continue to provide a worship service that nurtures and strengthens your faith and love of Christ.

Blessings, Worship chairperson Candace Haskell

A View From the Belfry
November, 2024

Halloweenlujah!!! The bat figurine was found in time for Trunk or Treat! The crabby old lady actually decorated her pathetic trunk with it! And I, little old Benny, found it! It was in the so- cial hall on the piano! Huh?? Oh hush!! Excuse me just a minute, but I have to attend to that crabby old lady. She's cackling again, uh, I mean calling me. What? Why? But..ok..no! Ok, ok, ok! (Big sigh.) Geez, some people. I guess I'd better explain. I said that I found the bat figurine. Well I did, but she wants me to tell everybody how I found it. See, actually, I had a teeny tiny bit of help. Huh? Sorry it's Crabby again! OH ALL RIGHT!!! I had a lot of help! See, I overheard Connie Kelsey tell C.O.L. (Crabby Old Lady) where it was. When nobody was looking I flew around and spotted it, right where Connie said it was, on the piano in the social hall! Well, to make sure it would be available for Halloween, I decided to put it in a safe place. Well, I'm not sure how safe it is actually, because I gave it to C.O.L. to keep until after Trunk or Treat so she could decorate her trunk with it. Who knows where it'll be after that! Anyway, we had a great Trunk or Treat this year. (I hope! I'm writing this before Trunk or Treat has actually happened, but with that figuring back in action, it can't be a bad event, can it?)

What??!! You again? (C.O.L., of course!) Don't lose your cool! I'm about to get on with it, OK? C.O.L. wants me to stick to business and get this article done!! Actually, I really should, because this month we move from Bat Day to Turkey Day! (See how important animals and birds and bats and oth- er critters are?) Anyway, November is the time where we really demonstrate how thankful we are, by having a holiday especially for that purpose! As we have for the past few years, we are sponsoring a community Thanksgiving Dinner at the Big Boy in town so that nobody will have to go hungry or tur- keyless on Thanksgiving Day. Before that the Manistique Ministerial Association will be having an ecu- menical Thanksgiving worship service at the Zion Lutheran Church on Tuesday, November 26th at 7 PM. Our church will also be fixing Thanksgiving baskets for those who could use a little extra help to make the day really special. In addition to that, the women of this church will be in charge of the en- tire worship service on Sunday, November 10th. I have heard that the theme is using our gifts and tal- ents! Not only will they run the service, but some of them will display their gifts and talents in the so- cial hall during social hour after the service! We really do have a lot of talent in this church! You guys are included among the talented also, lest you feel forgotten and unappreciated!) Thanks, Bette Jahn and her elves for all the work they do on the baskets. Thanks to all you talented women, also!

Well, I'd better close this article. We've had a busy September, a busy October, and are head- ing into a busy November, which is always followed by an even busier December, so I'd better get busy and take a long nap so I'll be all rested up for what's to come! What? You again!! Whaddya want this time? (C.O.L., still again!!!) Oh, yeah, I did forget that didn't I? She wants me to mention that No- vember is the month when Pastor B.J. makes his annual trip to hunting camp to terrorize the deer! Actually I like the deer pretty much. They don't bother us bats any, although I've never seen them be especially welcoming or friendly toward us, either. Anyway, Pastor B.J. deserves a little time running around in the woods and freezing his feet if that's what floats his boat. Good luck with your hunting Pastor, and enjoy your sojourn in the deep woodsy forest! I wish both the deer and the hunters good luck! (You'll have to work out how to have both parties get lucky for yourselves!)

Vitality/Mission Committee Update—Connie Kelsey

Hello everyone! We certainly have been very busy in church vitality and mission work. It was a great honor to give the Folkfest proceeds to two of our charities in October. Clare Lutgen from Bay Cliff Health Camp was here and received our donation of $600. She gave a very informative presentation and thanks us very much! Pastor B.J. accepted the $600 check for the Manistique Ministerial Association also. They also thank us for donating to their charity. Thank you to everyone who participated in the Progressive Dinner where we served 84 guests! Many guests enjoyed the lift operators.

It is always fun to see the children and parents enjoying our Trunk or Treat on October 31st. Everyone enjoys the refreshments and treats. Plus, I heard that we will have a photo booth too. Thanks everyone for volunteering!

We look forward to serving our congregation and community in the month of November. Who wants to help decorate our church for the Advent season after Thanksgiving? It is always a joyous event!

Bette called the meeting to order at 1 PM with Ruth giving the devotional from "God's Little Devotional" citing Philippians 2:4 - the best way to forget one's own problems is to help someone else. In light of that, Ruth asked if we might earmark a contribution to UMCOR for Hurricane Helene relief. A motion was made and seconded to allocate $1000.00. Motion carried.

The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. Old business involved further discussion and planning for UWIF Sunday, November 10. Members were asked to volunteer to explain or demonstrate their unique talent(s) with which God has blessed them. The Progressive Dinner begins at 4 PM with salads being served at 5:30 on Sunday, October 20. We will serve a variety of salads.

New business focused on the annual Christmas Tea planned for 1 PM on Saturday, December 7, with a theme of "Christmas with Friends." Each member may invite 2-3 friends. Individual table service and decorations will be provided by the table hostess(es). Guests will be invited to participate in the Cookie Walk. Bring an extra dozen cookies for each invited guest. Carolyn, Candace and Char will be responsible for additional fellowship hall tea decorations.

Cassandra Matchinski demonstrated pumpkin decorating with clever peel n' stick sequin designs and artificial flowers. They were glitzy, unique, quick and charming.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:10. Members enjoyed a spooktacular dessert of pumpkin bars and Halloween candy provided by Sharon F.

The next United Women in Faith meeting will be held on November 5th at 1 PM. All women are invited to attend the meetings.
